Business of Milwaukie.

Our attention was called a few days since to a late number of Thompson's Bank Note Reporter, published in New York, containing some very erroneous statements in regard to one or two of the towns on the Western shore of Lake Michigan.—To instance some of these errors:—It is stated, in the paper in question, that the "Chicago Daily News" is "the only daily West of Detroit," and that "Racine is going ahead of any place along the Wisconsin shore." As to the first of these statements it is sufficient to say that there are two other daily papers, besides the "News," published at Chicago, and that in addition to our own daily, another is soon to be started in Milwaukie. With regard to what is said about Racine, we are glad to know that this fine town is prospering steadily, but to speak of it as "going ahead of any place along the Wisconsin shore" is a strange mistake. Racine, we suppose, has a population of 2500 or 3000 souls; is surrounded by a fine farming country and in exchange for the produce brought in there, disposes of a very fair amount of goods. It is, in short, a thriving, busy town, and we view its growth and prosperity with none other than pleasurable feelings; but Milwaukie is already "far ahead" of it, and our rate of progress, from causes apparent to all who live, or land here, must continue to be much greater than that of Racine.

In the first place our population is treble that of Racine, and the business of the two towns bears a corresponding proportion. Then, in a commercial point of view, we enjoy the advantages of a good harbor, and a fine navigable stream, running through the heart of the town and affords every facility for the shipment and storage of produce and merchandize. A still greater advantage which Milwaukie enjoys, not only over Racine, but over every other town on the shores of the Great Lakes, is the abundant water power furnished by the Milwaukie River. This beautiful stream, which varies less in its volume than any other within our knowledge, is dammed about a mile and a half above the heart of the town, and affording a fall of 14 feet and a constant and copious supply of water to a number of mills and factories already in successful operation, with room and water power for as many more as can be crowded along the bank. At the point where the dam crosses, the river is 400 feet in width, and the water is brought down to the mills by means of a canal, running parallel with the river, with space sufficient between the two for the erection of the largest factories.

Two years ago there was but a single establishment upon this fine water power: now, there are eight or ten in full operation and several others going up, or about to be commenced. Approaching from the North, the first establishment is that of Messrs. TRUMBULL & HODGKISS, for tanning and dressing leather and manufacturing boots and shoes. Next comes the Woollen Factory of Messrs. W. & W. BURKE, which already turns out flannels and cloths of excellent quality. The third is the large saw mill of Messrs. COMSTOCK & CRARY, 46 feet by 71, four stories high, with a single saw and gang. In the basement story Mr. WALLINGFORD is about establishing an oil factory. Messrs DOXEY, MOSELEY & Co., Iron founders and Machinists, occupy the next building. In close proximity to this is the Planing Mill of Mr. PERKINS, and in the upper stories, the Door and Window Sash Manufactory of Mr. LAPOINTE.—Messrs. MYGATT & SHORT have also a Planing Machine in the same building. The adjoining establishment is that of Messrs. HOPKINS & SEYMOUR, for Planing and Grooving. The second and third stories are occupied by Messrs RICHMOND & LOCKE as a Tub, Pail and Wooden Ware Manufactory. This last establishment turns out some 300 pails a day, made in the most substantial manner. The extensive Foundry of LANGWORTHY & Co. comes next. The main building is 50 feet by 80, and the machine shop 30 by 60. The collection of patterns is very extensive and valuable, and for all sorts of brass, as well as iron founding. Castings can be made in this establishment of six or eight tons in weight. Adjoining this Foundry is a large Grist Mill, designed for 4 run of stone, though it has but two run yet. All the above are completed and in operation, and there is a Custom Mill, with two run of stone, nearly finished. We hear, too, that preparations are making to put up two Flouring Mills, one with 4, and the other with 6 run of stone, and a Paper Mill.

All this has been done, let us add, in a town which ten years ago had no existence; which five years ago numbered scarcely 2500 inhabitants, and which a little more than two years ago had not a single mill or manufactory within its limits. And this, too, is but a beginning; for there is yet abundant water power in the river and ample room on its bank, for a mile of Factories. In short, Milwaukie enjoys Manufacturing and Commercial advantages second to none in our Western World, and, if properly improved, such as must place her beyond the reach of competition.

LIFE INSURANCE.—We invite attention to the article in to-day's paper, copied from the New York Courier and Enquirer, upon the subject of Life Insurance. It presents briefly but forcibly some of the reasons which should induce men of moderate circumstances to insure their lives, and thus make provision for their families in the event of their own death. In connection with this subject we would refer the reader to the advertisement of Mr. JAMES S. BAKER, the agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. It gives the terms and rates upon which Life insurance can be effected, and whatever other information is desired can be obtained on application to Mr. Baker himself.

IRREGULARITY OF THE MAILS.—What is the matter with the mails? Every thing seems to be at loose ends in the P. O. Department. Instead of a mail once a day from the East, we get but one a week. It is an actual fact that but a single Eastern mail was received in this town throughout the whole of last week! No man can doubt that there is gross and unpardonable negligence somewhere. Is it at Buffalo or on Lake Erie; or on the Michigan and Hall Road, route through Michigan? Will some one of the special agents of the Department [illegible] to the bottom these wanton irregularities, and bring the delinquents to punishment. The Hon. Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Van Buren, "our sufferings is intolerable and cries aloud for relief."

LATEST NEWS.

The steamer Cleveland, from Chicago, on Saturday night brought us half a dozen mails from the East. From a bushel or two of papers which we have looked over, we glean a few items of intelligence.

There is no news from Mexico, and the general impression is that that the war cloud has blow over. The campaign, however, is not to be exempt from casualities. The steamer Dayton, employed in Government service, burst her boilers while going from Corpus Christi to St. Joseph Island, on the 12th ult, killing Lieutenants WIGGINS and BARRY of the fourth Infantry, and eight other persons, soldiers and firemen, and wounding seventeen more; Capt. CROSSMAN had a narrow escape.

Hon. JOHN WHITE, late M. C from Kentucky, and Speaker of the House of Representatives in '41 '42, committed suicide, by shooting himself with a pistol, on the 23d ultimo. Pecuniary embarrassment is stated to have been the cause of this dreadful act.

THE MORMON DISTURBANCES still continue in Illinois. The whole region of country round Nauvoo, seems to have caught the fever, and men are mustering at different points, with the avowed purpose of driving the Mormons out of the State. Meantime the latter are fortifying and provisioning their city and Temple as if expecting a siege.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION, in session at New York, has been discussing the question whether or nor the suspension of Bishop Onderdonk has vacated the office. The decision had not been given at the last accounts.

LIGHT HOUSE AT THE HARBOR.—We are glad to state that the Light House which Capt. M'CLELLAND has been engaged in building at the mouth of our River, is now completed and was lit up for the first time last Friday. It is built upon the outer end of the Northern Pier The light is of a reddish cast, stands about thirty feet above the level of the Lake, and may be seen at a distance of eight miles. It should be remembered that the light at the end of the Huron street Pier is also of a red color, but it is smaller in size than the one at the mouth of the River, and not more than ten feet above the level of the Lake. Papers at Buffalo, Cleveland, &c, are requested to copy this notice

JERUSALEM AND PALESTINE.—Mr D. W. SWARTZ proposes to deliver three lectures, descriptive of Jerusalem and Palestine, in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches on the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The lectures will be illustrated by forty illuminated maps and views Those who have heard Mr Swartz in the Eastern cities speak highly of his merits and attainments. He brings high testimonials from the press and the clergy of different denominations, and his lectures have everywhere been attended by crowded and gratified audiences. The first of the series will be given to-morrow evening in the Presbyterian Church.

☞ The Madison Argus "anticipates some brushes" with us on the subjects of the Tariff currency, &c., and proposes to "toss up for the first fire." Nay, friend, fire away and let us hear, by the crack of your rifle, how big a bore you are and what charge you carry.

☞ Joseph Miller died in 1738, and was buried on the east side of the burial-ground of St. Clement Danes, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London; the spot where he lies being marked by a stone bearing the following honorable testimony to his virtues and his wit:

ELECTION.—As the official returns are not made, we do not attempt to furnish any thing more than the general results of the late election. There was but little interest taken—and fewer votes were polled than was expected. Collins majority for Delegate, in Grant County, is about 315.

Representatives—Thomas P. Burnett, Thomas Croson and Armstead B Brown. [Wisconsin Herald.

BUCK WHEAT seems to be a favorite crop with the Wisconsin Farmers this year. We perceive that acres and acres of it have been sown in the southern part of the Territory; the crop is apparently a very good one, and is now being harvested As the last fall crop, it is profitable for feeding to stock as well as for furnishing families with those delicious cakes so much admired all over the world. Well it does—for it beat Martin.

WHISKERS.—A lady who had been scolding her lover for wearing whiskers, nevertheless gave him the usual kiss on his leaving her. "Oh, you can kiss me, then," said the swain, "for all I have such odious whiskers!" "To be sure," was the reply, "you know I set my face against such things."

LIFE INSURANCE.

Extracted from the Editorial department of the "Morning Courier and N. York Enquirer," of June 30th, 1845.

We have ever been of opinion that LIFE INSURANCE was too little regarded in this country; and that notwithstanding some objections which exist against it, every prudent man who is engaged in business, and all who are not certain of leaving their families provided for in the event of death, should avail themselves of the advantages offered by Life Insurance Companies to insure their widows and children against absolute poverty in the event of their death

Mercantile business is probably more precarious in this country than in any other on the face of the globe; owing doubtless to the great enterprise of our people, and to the fact that in the infancy of our country, and absence of capital, more of its transactions are based upon credit than any where else. Gen Dearborne, of Boston in a memorial is subject, read before the Mercantile Library Association of that city, declared most [illegible] upon this question, that ninety-six out of every hundred persons who embarked in Mercantile pursuits in the United States, fail or are unsuccessfull If this be so, and it admits of no question, what merchant who feels a proper desire to guard his family against want, can afford to neglect the opportunity which Life Insurance Companies offer, to accomplish so desirable an object?

Thus the thousands and tens of thousands of clerks and others who are dependent upon their yearly salary for the support of themselves and families,—how terrible is the reflection to them, that with their life terminates the means of subsistence for their wives and children? and so with the Mechanic—whether Boss or Journeyman—who is poor, or his fortune, if he has one, is not beyond the reach of those contingencies to which all are alike subject. To all such the Life Insurance Companies are open; and by annually devoting a very small portion of their earnings to the trifling premiums required, all anxiety in regard to the pecuniary wants of their family in the event of their death, may at once be relieved. Death is not a welcome visitor, come when he may; but nothing, nothing can be more horrible than to witness his approach, in the conviction that the hour of his triumph consigns a wife and children to want, or to that cold charity of an unfeeling world with which all become familiar in their observation upon passing events. Give to the dying man the conviction that by his industry or foresight he has guarded those he loves from the horrors of want, and the grim tyrant is not only stripped of half his terrors, but too frequently hailed as a friend certain to give relief to the troubled spirit, and freedom from all those ills which flesh is heir to.

This is no picture of the imagination; but on the contrary, one of every day occurrence. Not a solitary day passes even in this city but some poor man breathes his last leaving a wife and children penniless, who might, by a little foresight, and the yearly appropriation of a small portion of his earnings to an insurance upon his life, have left them in comparative wealth, & thus saved himself the severest pangs in the hour of death. Even the very selfishness which too frequently prompts a man to abstain from effecting an insurance on his life, because it requires a yearly sacrifice of means from which he cannot reap any fruits, should induce him to purchase that consolation in the hour of death, which all must feel who are conscious that by small sacrifices of unnecessary luxuries or pleasures during life, they have secured those whom they love, against the horrors of the tenant which is too frequently the parent of crime, as well as of mental and bodily suffering.

Reflections such as these, and daily witnessing the sufferings of those whose husbands and fathers, had they been less selfish might have shielded them from the cold charity of the world have long since rendered us the advocates of Life Insurance. The improvement in Life Insurance Companies has kept pace with the spirit of the age, and at this moment, instead of being conducted to add to the wealth of the wealthy they are little more than associations of the rich and poor, in which each contributes pro rata to protect the families of all those associated, from the evils of want. They are emphatically, the greatest and most important charities of the day, in which the money of the rich, the strong, the enterprising, and the industrious, is annually invested for the protection of the weak and helpless—of the widow and the orphan They are SAVING BANKS of a higher and holier character than any others ever devised by man; and every wife and daughter in the land, should invoke their husbands and fathers to become a partner to so noble a charity—a contributor to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

CENSUS OF CHAUTAUQUE.—The aggregate returns of the several Marshals exhibit a falling off of about 1500 in the population as compared with 1840, when it was 47 975. This is not a very flattering fact but it reveals nothing unexpected to those who have observed the migratory spirit afflicting a portion of our community.

VERY GALLANT.—The Misses Macomber have been fined $50 by the authorities of Louisville, because they dared to sing without asking permission of the Council.

Babbidge, in illustrating the power of machinery, says, that at "Calicut, in the East Indies, whence the cotton cloth called Calico derives its name, the price of labor is one-seventh of that in England; yet the market is supplied from British looms."

A CLINCHER.—A reformer of the present day said, that the age is immoral, that even Nature herself is getting wicked, for it is quite common to hear of, and see, "smutty wheat."

THE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Milwaukie, Oct 5, 1845.

The Wheat Market continues without any change. During the first part of the week the transactions were light, but on Friday and Saturday, wheat came in freely and was bought, as fast as it arrived, at 60 cents.

There are no vessels loading here now, though several are hourly expected from below. We should judge that there are about seventy thousand bushels of wheat stored at this point, most of it for shipment East.

Wheat was selling at Southport, on Saturday, at 56 cents, which was the higest range.

WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE!!

Another remarkable cure of Deafness, performed by Scarpa's Acoustic Oil, in this city Let the case speak for itself.

Albany, Feb 22d, 1844.

Mr Guthrie: 4 Stanwix Hall, Maiden Lane: Dear Sir I owe you an immense debt of gratitude for inducing me to try Scarpa's compound Acoustic Oil I had been so very deaf for eight years this winter, that I could not hear conversation with an ear trumpet, without the voice being much raised I have been using the Oil about six weeks in one ear that was far the worst, and with which I was almost totally deaf, and I am happy to inform you that I can now hear ordinary conversation without the trumpet. I feel that I would like to inform the whole deaf community of the astonishing effect of the above medicine. I shall be pleased to see any person who may desire to call upon me, to make inquiries concerning my case. Yours, &c.

HOLD ON, THERE!

FOR Great Bargains!—New Store and New Goods. LYON, BROTHERS have just received and are now opening in Birchard's new Brick Block, Spring street, near the American Hotel, a large and complete stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, Hardware, Boots & Shoes, &c., which they offer at wholesale or retail, unusually low.

One of the firm resides in the city of New York, and spends most of his time in picking up Goods at Auction, and from first hands which enables them to sell cheaper than the cheapest; and they feel confident that in this way they can buy and sell 10 per cent cheaper than any other establishment west.

All we ask is, call and examine prices and quality before purchasing, and we trust all will be duly paid for their trouble, in GREAT BARGAINS, that will be offered at the New Cash Store, Sign of the Red Flag. Aug 20

A GREAT CHANCE FOR HOTEL KEEPERS.

THE undersigned, who has kept the Milwaukie House for the last three years, is now anxious to retire from the business, as his health will not permit that attention which the avocation requires; he will dispose of his furniture and all his fixtures in the house at a reduced rate for cash. The house is doing the very best of business, and much more could be done were it in the hands of one whose health would permit more energy. If the above property is not disposed of by the first of November, it will be sold at public auction, in parcels to suit purchasers, of which due notice will be given, with a description of furniture, &c. &c. &c. All those who are in want of all kinds of furniture, feather beds, mattresses, horses, &c. would do well to call themselves of this sale.

The proprietor would be pleased to have all his old customers and friends call on him—He will use his exertions to please them, and make them at home while he remains in the house C. WALL, Proprietor.

N B The situation of the Milwaukie House is on a bluff in the East Ward, where it has a commanding view of the lake, river, city and country, and is capable of accommodating one hundred persons. There is also attached to the house a large and extensive barn. The house can be leased for a term of years at a low price. Milwaukie, W. T. Aug 26 1845. 2m

SANDS SARSAPARILLA.—The tremendous of suffering has been the object of the philanthropist in every age of the world, but true principles of treating disease progressed but slowly for many thousand years, owing to the limited means of acquiring knowledge;—but since the introduction of the printing press and steam engine it may justly be said,—"Light has dawned upon the world," and the mind of the poorest country possesses advantages which its fathers never did. In this general diffusion of knowledge, remedies have been discovered and discovered in the beautiful storehouse of the vegetable creation exactly calculated to combat with, neutralize and dissolve the subtle poison which diffuses itself throughout the general system and produces more than half the ills that flesh is heir to. Sands Sarsaparilla, a purely vegetable preparation, has been thoroughly tested in a variety of diseases, and is from experience, known to be a sure and effectual cure for Scrofula or Enlargement of the Glands, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Rheumatism Palpitation of the Heart and other diseases arising from an impure or depraved state of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. Original manuscripts of various certificates, letters, of the clergy, Magistrates and Drs. all confirming the previous statements, are constantly received and will be cheerfully exhibited on application. Facts are recorded sufficiently clear and convincing to satisfy the most incredulous of the real merits of this invaluable medicine.

For further particulars and conclusive evidence of its superior value and efficacy, see pamphlets, which may be obtained of agents gratis. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail, by A B Sands & Co., Druggists and Chemists, 273 Broadway. For sale also by

PROLAPSUS UTERI

THIS is but one of those cases in which Hull's Uterine Abdominal Supporter, from the many certificates in its favor we select only the following of Doctor Ashwell—After its successful trial in Guy's hospital, the following certificate was handed to Dr. Hull's London Agent, for public use:—

11 Devonshire Square, London, May 17 1838

"Having tried Dr Hull's Instrument for the cure of Prolapsus and Procidentia Uteri, I am glad to express a highly favorable opinion of its utility. In a severe case of entire Procidentia, lately under treatment at Guy's Hospital, it was applied with marked success. Its great superiority over the pessary consists in its affording efficient support to the weakened abdominal integuments, and in its external application, instead of its introduction into the vagina. I quite think it will accomplish a permanent cure better and more quickly than the pessary. SAMUEL ASHWELL, M D

Obstetric Physician, and Lecturer at Guy's London.

Sir Astley Cooper, after the apparatus had been several months under his inspection, gave the following opinion for publication:—

"This apparatus is beautiful for its simplicity; it is an acquisition to practice. The principle of its operation is quite original and perfect I shall advise its use, and make use of it in my own practice, in preference to anything I have seen"

The above valuable instrument can be found at the Medical store of the undersigned, who is the agent for the sale of the same in Wisconsin. A. F CLARKE.
